

Musical charity drama to raise funds for love and care

KUCHING: Fatt Lung Tang Association Kuching is holding a 'Love Together' Modern Charity musical drama cum dinner at 7pm on May 25 at the Christian Ecumenical Worship Centre.

Supported by the Lotus Light Charity Society Malaysia, the show will be conducted in Mandarin and local dialects. The performers are West Malaysian artistes.

The show aims to raise funds for 20 local charitable bodies and schools such as Chung Hua Middle Schools No. 1, 3 and 4, Society of St Vincent De Paul Malaysia, Serian, MAA Medicare Kidney Charity Fund, Life Care Society of Kuching and Hope Place Kuching.

"This is the first time we are holding the event in Kuching and we choose a musical drama to promote love and care in the younger generation. We are facing an ailing society with rise of social ills like snatch thefts and drug addiction reported in the media," said Lotus Light Charity Society Malaysia secretary general Gan Loot Heng at a press conference.

He added that the charity musical drama kicked off on July 13 last year which hopes to help more than 1,000 charities nationwide. The association hopes to raise RM250,000 and admission is via dinner contribution of RM80 per person.

To purchase a spot for the show, the public should contact the association at 082-616518 (10am to 6pm), 012-8822737, 019-8181008, 013-5600265, 019-8562284 or 016-8966000.

Also present at the press conference were adviser Lai Joh Phin, organising chairman Andrew Ang, assistant organising chairmen Chai Ming Kiong and Chong Ted Min, committee member (public relations) Liu Huan Tze and publicist Bryan Wong.
